

TRAINING TRAIL: Cosford

The RAF Museum holds a number of examples of training aircraft mentioned in this exhibition. Follow this trail and see how many you can find. Tick each one you find!

Hawker Siddeley Gnat T1

Which famous aerobatic team used to fly me?

.....

De Havilland Chipmunk

Who had a right Royal time learning to fly me?

.....

Percival Provost T1

When did the RAF first start using me to train pilots?

.....

Scottish Aviation Jetstream

What type of training was I used for?

.....

Vickers Varsity T MK.1

How many engines do I have? What type of engine are they?

.....

Avro Anson C.19

Who was I used to train?

- A) Pilots and navigators
- B) Wireless Operators and Air Gunners
- C) All of the above

Westland Wessex HC.2

What colour was I normally painted for Search and Rescue training?

.....

Answers can be found on the Interactive Trails page of the Taking Flight exhibition