10 Aug 77	As part of the Royal visit to Northern Ireland 10-11 August 1977, HM The Queen made her first ever helicopter flight, flying on XV732 from on board HMS Fife in Belfast Loch (escort to HMY Britannia) to Hillsborough Castle during her Silver Jubilee Year visit to Northern Ireland. Photo boarding onboard HMS Fife; Scorpion News No 84 Squadron Asscn RAF Newsletter Issue 54, Jan 2014 p.32. Captain Sqn Ldr Jim Millar, Navigator Sqn Ldr Ralph Lee, Crew Chief Sgt Mike Legg. XV732 remained on the ground at Hillsborough in case Her Majesty needed evacuating in case of terrorist attack, then flew to Aldergrove, and was held in (unrequired) reserve for sister Royal Wessex XV733 which was used for the rest of the royal visit, although reportedly XV732 refused to start later that day, so the Royal Party returned to HMS Fife on board XV733.

- 31 Mar 95 Queen's Flight disbanded at RAF Benson. At the end of a visit to the Queen's Flight at RAF Benson by HRH Princess Margaret, HRH was flown from RAF Benson to Windsor Royal Lodge by S/Ldr Duggan in XV732. On departure from Benson, the aircraft made a flypast so Princess Margaret could wave farewell to Flight members assembled outside the hangar. This was the very last flight carried out by the Queen's Flight.
- 1 Apr 95 Following disbandment of the Queen's Flight, transferred to renamed No 32 (The Royal) Squadron at RAF Northolt, from where the two Wessex operated until withdrawal as part of 'A' Flight.
- 25 Mar 98 XV732 operated the last Royal scheduled task of either Queen's Flight Wessex. (Carrying HRH The Duke of Gloucester from Northolt to Duxford)
- 26 Mar 98 Last non-Royal scheduled task, again by XV732. (sister aircraft XV733 had carried out its last scheduled task on 11 March 1998)
- 31 Mar 98 Last flight, Northolt-Brampton-Stanford-Northolt. Flying hours 10,949.25
- 1 April 98 Both Wessex officially retired.
- 28 Apr 98 To RAF Shawbury, Salop for long term storage (stored unserviceable)

26 Mar 02 By road to RAFM Hendon for display following gifting to the RAFM by the MoD February 2002. Photos on display; Wingspan International No.11 p.13; Flypast August 2002 p.8.

The aircraft servicing records are held by DoRIS (X002-9375), together with the Pilot's log book of Sqn Ldr R F King MVO, Helicopter Section Flight Commander, The Queen's Flight, RAF Benson, for the period April 1986 – March 1995, and also the logbook of crew chief Flt Sgt 'Jack' Frost for the period 1969-70 (X002-9374).

Sister HCC.4 XV733, the last Wessex built, went to the Helicopter Museum, Weston-Super-Mare, in November 2001 following auction by the MoD.
