

TAKE A SPITFIRE HOME WITH YOU

Event: Airfix Fortnight

Date: 20th August - 2nd September 2012

If you have ever visited our London Museum and wished that you could take one of our Spitfires home with you, now you can for free - but in miniature.

Since the launch of its 1st Spitfire aircraft kit, Airfix has regularly based its aircraft range of models on aeroplanes found in the Royal Air Force Museum's aircraft collection.

To celebrate this fact, from 20th of August until 2nd of September, we are giving our visitors the opportunity to make and paint their own 1:72 scale Spitfire model to take home with them for free.

Sessions will be taking place daily in the Museum's Dermot Boyle Wing from 10am to 1pm and from 2pm to 5pm. Our Dermot Boyle Wing is located at the back of Historic Hangars.

For further information about this event please call 020 8205 2266.

The Royal Air Force Museum London is open daily from 10am to 6pm with last admission being at 5.30pm. Admission to the Museum is free of charge, and throughout the summer the Museum will be hosting daily a range of free activities for the whole family to enjoy. The museum is currently showing a retrospective on the work of David Bent in Fresh Air.

Ends.
