

Story Starters

Use these story starter ideas to make up your own story. You could write it down, record it, act it out, make it in to a puppet show – whatever you like!

- The aeroplane's engine roared to life ...
- The pilot was flying at 600 miles per hour when suddenly ...
- She jumped out of the aeroplane ...
- Percy the parachuting penguin looked around him and saw ...
- The crew of the Sunderland Flying Boat had been waiting on the sea for hours when suddenly ...
- She was feeling so pleased that she had done her bit for the war by joining the WAAF (Women's Auxiliary Air Force) but just then the stern voice of her Section Officer cracked the peace ...
- The year, 1919. 'Are you ready for adventure?' Twinkle Toes asked her best friend Lucky Jim. 'I can't believe we are going to be the first cats to fly across the Atlantic Ocean' Lucky Jim replied. Twinkle Toes licked her paw, brushed back her whiskers and climbed aboard the aircraft ...
- The Museum looked strangely different ...
- He put on his helmet and goggles and got in to the plane ...
- She stayed hidden as the sound of the helicopter got louder and louder ...
- If an aeroplane could talk it would say ...
- She was about to fly with the Red Arrows for the first time ...

Share your stories with us @RAFMUSEUM