How much are the tickets?

Tickets are £50.00 per person. This allows you to explore two of the Cold War's most iconic aircraft; the Avro Vulcan B2 and the McDonnell Douglas Phantom

FGR2. You will also be provided with a tour of the Cold War aircrafts from our expert Aircraft Access volunteers.

Where does the experience take place?

Please arrive at the Museum fifteen minutes before your chosen time, you can pick up your information pack at the H1 shop before making your way over to the Vulcan, located in the far corner of H5.

How long will the session last?

Each session will last between 45 mins to an hour. There are eight timed slot sessions you can book in for each date.

Are there any access requirements I need to be made aware of?

Please ensure that you have read the Access & Conditions terms located on the event webpage. These terms and conditions outline the physical mobility required to access the aircrafts.

I have booked two tickets in for myself and a friend/partner – are we able to go into the Vulcan together?

No, for Health and Safety reasons we are only permitted to allow 1 person per session to access the cockpit.

I am running late, will I still be able to access the Vulcan?

We understand with unforeseen circumstances that being late for an event can happen. We can't guarantee that we will be able to fit you into a slot but will try to find the best solution to accommodate your session.

I am now unable to attend the event, will I be able to get a refund?

Unfortunately we can't refund tickets, but if you contact us more than three weeks in advance, we will do our best to try out best to reschedule your booking. This can be done by contacting us on whatson@rafmuseum.org
