

RAF 100 CONFERENCE

HISTORY, CONCEPTS AND
THE CRUCIBLE OF WAR

19-21 September 2018

A three-day conference to be held at the RAF Museum in partnership with the University of Birmingham and King's College, London.

With 2018 marking the centenary of the RAF this conference will form one of the principal academic contributions to the RAF 100 commemoration. It will examine the development of the RAF over the past 100 years and its influence. In creating a forum for interdisciplinary research and new perspectives on the subject, the conference will appeal to all those interested in looking at the RAF's past and also its future.

Keynote Speakers:

Air Chief Marshal Sir Stephen Hillier,
Chief of the Air Staff

Professor Matthew Jones,
London School of Economics
