Choral Christmas at Cosford

10th and 11th December

12.30pm to 2.30pm

Free admission

The Royal Air Force Museum Cosford will be getting into the Christmas Spirit during the weekend of 10th and 11th of December as the Temponilla Choir will be performing Christmas Carols for visitors. Accompanied by a piano, performances will consist of classic Christmas wartime favourites and traditional hymns and carols.

The performances will commence at 12.30pm and finish around 2.30pm both days and will take place around the 15ft Christmas tree in the Museum's Visitor Centre. These performances will provide the perfect joyful accompaniment to a festive lunch in our Refuel Restaurant.

The Museum will be open daily throughout December from 10am apart from Christmas Eve, Christmas Day and Boxing Day. The Museum will then close again on New Year's Day and will reopen on Monday 2nd January 2012 from 10am.

So if you're looking to escape the hustle and bustle this Christmas, why not visit the Royal Air Force Museum Cosford during the festive period. Not only will you be able to view the award winning National Cold War Exhibition, containing Britain's three V Bombers, we are also home to the worlds oldest Spitfire and the famous Lincoln Bomber. Best of all, if your credit cards are maxed out after Christmas, a visit to the Museum won't cost you a penny as admission is FREE!
