

23rd October 2009

Media Invite

Monday 26th October 2009
6.30pm

The Royal Air Force Museum Cosford is busy preparing for their forthcoming Spooky Spectacular event due to take place this Halloween.

The media are invited to attend a dress rehearsal on Monday 26th October from 6.30pm and be the first to catch a glimpse of the spooky goings on, including a live Zombie Glen Miller band playing under the Museum's WWII Lincoln bomber, performed by pupils from Telford Stage School.

For the event the Museums Warplane hangar will be transformed beyond all recognition, taking place on Saturday 31st October 2009. This spooktacular evening of thrills and chills will finish with the evening's main event - a dazzling display of fireworks in the Museum grounds and a fun-fair full of devilish delights will keep the whole family entertained deep into All Hallow's Eve.

To confirm your attendance please call the Museum on 01902 376200 or email halloween-cosford@rafmuseum.org
